

Eric D. Garner is a native of Chattanooga, TN and privileged to be married to his beautiful wife Daljuania (Del-wana) who blessed him with two wonderful and lovely daughters, Aiyana (I-yana), and Leilani (Lay-lani). He began preaching the gospel of Christ in 2009 and served the Avondale congregation in Chattanooga, TN for 12 years. He began preaching for the church at Ooltewah in January 2021.

In addition to preaching, Eric holds a secular position as a high school assistant principal.

By way of education, he earned a degree in Bible from the Online Academy of Biblical Studies, and secularly, he holds a Doctorate in Education from Carson-Newman University.

Eric has been fortunate to conduct gospel meetings, be a staple speaker and serve in several lectureships/conferences, and hold speaking engagements domestically and abroad.

The Lord has blessed Eric to be involved in various works within the Lord's church. Below are a few he is currently involved in:

- Host of Make It Plain – Hab 2:2: The Eric, Kee, and Cameron Show on GBN.
- Instructor for the Chattanooga School of Preaching and Biblical Studies.
